The Masked Dancer
Saturday, 6.30pm
24th September
ITV

Joel Dommett continues the new series of the dance-based take on The Masked Singer. Will we be able to guess who is behind the masks in this week's show?

Five Masked Dancers compete to remain anonymous and the fourth celebrity is eliminated and unmasked. Hosted as ever by Joel Dommett, who is joined by his table of expert panellists - Oti Mabuse, Jonathan Ross, Davina McCall and Peter Crouch.

The Voice UK
Saturday, 8pm
24th September
ITV

Emma Willis is our host as the series that aims to find the country's next big music star continues, with Olly Murs, Sir Tom Jones, Anne-Marie and will.i.am as coaches.

The Blind Auditions continue, with more twists and turns from the infamous red chairs as the coaches pitch against each other to pick the finest vocal talent for their teams. Will there be a diamond in the rough ready to be picked up by one of the judges?

Celebrity Lingo
Sunday, 6.30pm
25th September
ITV

The new celebrity quiz show, hosted by the inimitable RuPaul, that sees famous faces go head-to-head in the fast-paced wordplay game, continues.

Battling it out for charity are Michelle Visage and Vernon Kay, Dr Ranj and Chaser Jenny Ryan, plus BGT winner Axel Blake and comedian Ellie Taylor. Who has what it takes to go home with a huge amount of money for their chosen charities?

Gino's Italy: Live Mamma Used to Make
Sunday, 7.30pm
25th September
ITV

Chef Gino D'Acampo embarks on a journey across Italy as the series which follows him as he seeks to pay tribute to the women who have fed his compatriots.

Karen Pirie
Sunday, 8pm
25th September
ITV

Karen is a refreshingly normal young woman - slick, maverick cop she is not - but her quick mouth and ingenuity make her an impressive investigator.

When a historic murder case in St Andrews becomes the subject of a true crime podcast, fearless detective Karen Pirie is tasked with heading up the cold case review. Lauren Lyle heads the cast of this three-part drama based on Val McDermid's book.

The Suspect
Monday, 9pm
26th September
ITV

Aiden Turner heads the cast of this drama about a successful psychologist with a loving family who is more than happy to help police when a woman is murdered.

Having uncovered the truth, Joe has to convince those around him before it's too late. DI Ruiz takes a calculated risk - will it pay off, or backfire horribly? At the moment Joe thinks he is finally out of the woods, the stakes suddenly become life or death.

On Assignment
Tuesday, 10.45pm
27th September
ITV

Rageh Omaar presents the latest instalment of ITV's monthly investigative news series that takes a look at the stories that don't necessarily make the headlines.

John Ray investigates the devastating effects flooding has had in Kenya's great lakes region, Geraint Vincent meets an architect who is trying to preserve an icon to Bulgaria's past, and Romilly Weeks goes on a search for bison in Romania.

Doc Martin
Wednesday, 9pm
28th September
ITV

After what feels like a lifetime away, our return to Portwenn for what is the very last series of the hit comedy-drama starring Martin Clunes continues.

Martin rubs up against the new herbalist and Penhale, Louisa and James are interested in Janice's new pedicure fish. Martin's ex-flame invites him to speak as keynote speaker at Imperial College, and Ruth is back from Mexico with more than maracas.

Weekly highlights

Bad Chefs
Monday-Friday, 9pm
26th-30th September
ITV2

This new cooking competition, hosted by social media star Chunkz, sees a group of takeaway food addicts live together as they learn how to cook for themselves.

The contestants start with virtually no culinary knowledge and must learn how to create top-quality food as the competition progresses - there are plenty of twists and turns guaranteed along the way, but the last chef standing will win a big cash prize.

The Emily Atack Show
Tuesday, 10pm
27th September
ITV2

The multi-talented Emily Atack is back with another series of her hit programme combining stand-up observation with cutting-edge sketches and impersonations.

The theme of the first episode of the series is old-fashioned romance, but there's also room for a flash mob gone wrong, an unfortunate affair with a plane, a wedding that turns into a disaster, and a meeting between Christine Lampard and ITV's HR Officer.
