The Social Media Murders

Episodes three and four drop on ITVX on Thursday 9th March.

ITVX

The true-crime programme continues with two more compelling yet cautionary insights into 21st-century crime.

As more episodes of this fascinating series come to ITVX, we delve into two more absorbing cases.

First, The Murder of Mikey Rainsford looks at how a young skater with a big social media following was murdered in his own home - and police discover Snapchat holds the key to finding his killers.

Plus, The Murder of Bianca Devins, looks at a case of a young woman in upstate New York who was murdered, and things took an even more sinister turn when the killer posted footage of his heinous crimes all over social media.
