Week 16 Saturday 15 – Friday 21 April 2023

sky

We're getting ornithological this week on Sky as we join Jim Moir and his wife Nancy for a comedic road trip as they look to replicate our feathered friends on canvas in Painting Birds with Jim and Nancy Moir on Sky Arts.

Also this week, we take a look at one of the 1990's most infamous murder cases in the four-part Sky Documentaries series The Essex Murders, and there's more wet work going on over on Sky Comedy with the fourth season of the critically acclaimed Barry. And finally, Sky Cinema presents the premiere of Jordan Peele's fantastic sci-fi horror... fancy taking on a mysterious, horse-devouring alien entity? Nope.

On Sky Showcase this week

Showcasing new shows and familiar favourites from across Sky. It's never been easier to discover it all.

This week, we revisit one of the most infamous murder investigations of the 1990s, as the crime underworld and rave culture collided and led to a gangland shooting in The Essex Murders.

Also this week, we're putting our feathered friends on canvas with a comedy genius in Painting Birds with Jim and Nancy Moir, and the herd is on the move in the enthralling Sky Original Chasing the Rains.

The 80s hits keep coming in a new episode of A Town Called Malice, the red speedster continues his final adventure in The Flash, and we begin an all-new season of awkward workplace shenanigans in American Auto.

Painting Birds with Jim and Nancy Moir Northumberland

Series 1, episode 1

A new comedic ornithological series, Painting Birds with Jim and Nancy Moir will follow prolific artist Jim and his wife Nancy as they explore some of Britain's best beauty spots, joined along the way by a few famous friends. Their challenge? Create an original piece of bird art celebrating the unique species native to that region over the course of a weekend. Accompanied in each episode by local twitchers, artists and conservation experts, Jim, and Nancy will be guided through forest and fen as they venture through wild countryside and local bird sanctuaries to gather inspiration. They'll spend meditative weekends sketching and painting their feathery subjects, tackling everything from grouse to goshawks and bitterns to bearded tits.

The Essex Murders Ecstasy and Agony

Part 1 of 3

This gripping three-part series explores one of the most notorious multiple murders in British history, the assassination of the so-called Essex Boys in an isolated country lane, 26 years ago.

It's a case that has sparked countless gangster films, books and a frenzy of online speculation and now for the first time, this series will go behind the headlines - taking us on a journey from deep in the heart of the nineties rave scene to the hidden world of organised crime. Told through an extraordinary cast of characters from underworld gangsters to police, as well as present-day investigators who uncover shocking new evidence, The Essex Murders gets to the heart of a case that is still shrouded in questions and asks whether the right men were convicted of the crime.

Nope

What: Sci-Fi, Horror (2022, Sky 15)

Who: Daniel Kaluuya, Keke Palmer, Steven Yeun, Michael Wincott, Brandon Perea

Director: Jordan Peele

Oscar-winning filmmaker Jordan Peele reimagines the summer movie with Nope, an expansive pop epic of uncanny science fiction. Following their father's shocking death, Hollywood animal wrangler OJ (Daniel Kaluuya) and his sister Emerald (Keke Palmer) begin observing unexplained phenomena on their vast Southern California ranch that leads them down an obsessive rabbit hole as they plot attempts to capture the mystery on camera. Along with a former child star turned family theme park ringmaster (Steven Yeun) who neighbours the siblings, the pair's efforts to chase the spectacle soon bring terrifying consequences and unimaginable horror.

A Brush with Comedy

Based on the RTS Award Nominated Short, the feature-length documentary delves into the connection between comedy and art and the creative processes of comedians. The story focuses on five comedians – Jim Moir, Spencer Jones, Bec Hill, Simon Munnery and Miriam Elia - as they create artwork over the course of three years, for a group exhibition in central London. We discover what each can do artistically, and what the end goal is in an attempt to discover the emotional, comedic and artistic tendencies that have never been seen before on screen. The film is written, directed, narrated and partly shot by Jim's son, Louis.

Gonzo: The Life and Work Of Hunter S Thompson

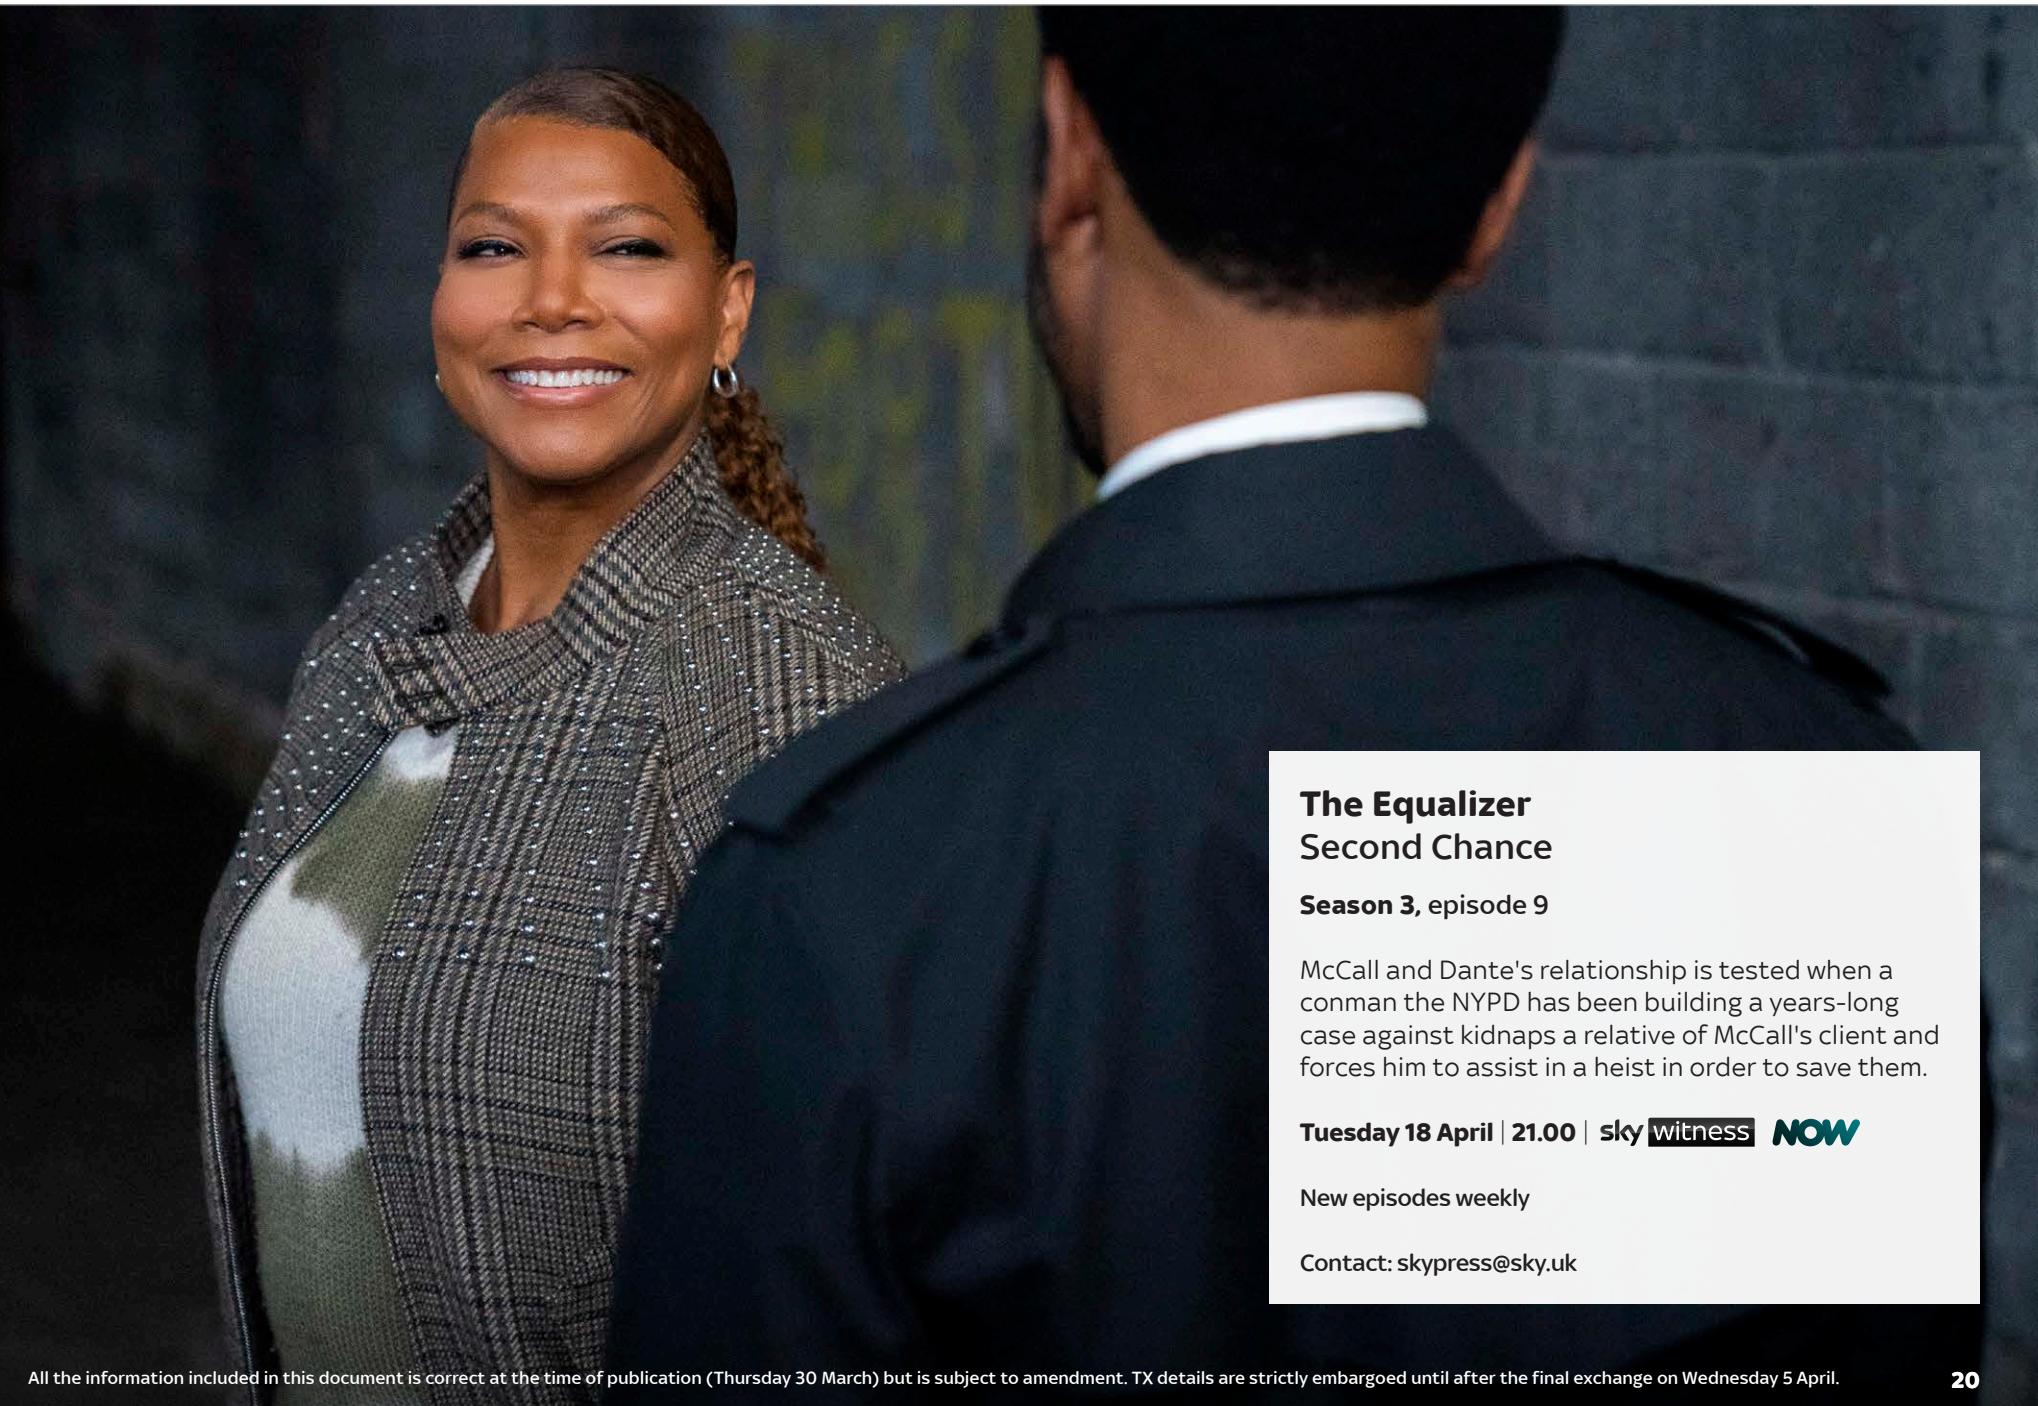

This stylized documentary uses journalist Hunter S. Thompson's own words, his home movies, interviews with his fans and critics and passionate narration by Johnny Depp to give some insight into the writer's process and edgy genius. Director Alex Gibney explores Thompson's life from the mid-1960s to the mid-1970s, when he was at the height of his creative powers. Gibney traces the beginnings of Thompson's gonzo journalism style and recounts his most infamous drug- and alcohol-induced exploits.

Premier League

The top two teams in the table see Premier League action this weekend with Manchester City and Arsenal hoping to bring home the points. City are struggling to make up ground against the Gunners as the season ploughs on, and cannot afford to drop any more points if they hope to retain their status as Premier League champions, and will be looking for an easy three-points against a struggling Leicester City at home. Then on Super Sunday, Arsenal also face off against a relegation prospect as they play West Ham at the London Stadium. We tie off the weekend as Nottingham Forest – without a win in six games, attempt to cling on to their Premiership status in a difficult home fixture against Manchester United.
