

What to Watch in June

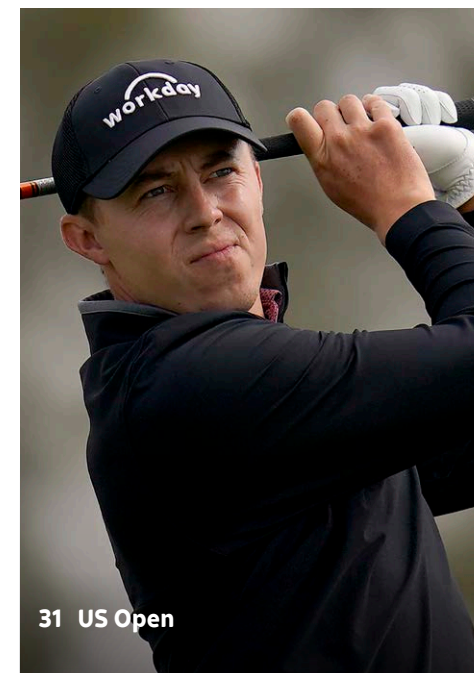

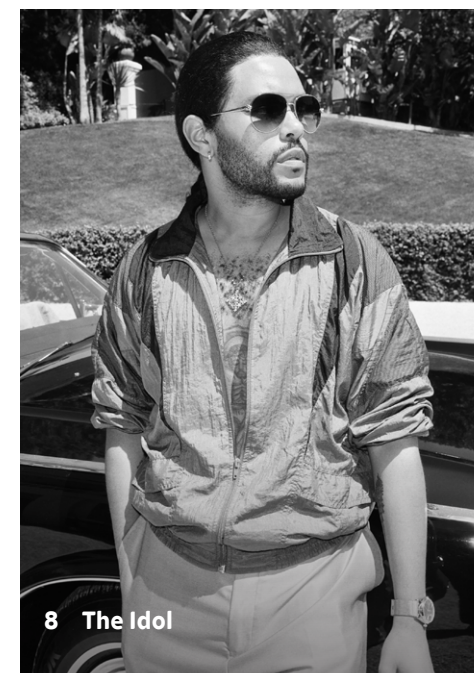

Hello

Summer is right around the corner and Sky is coming at you with a whole new season of first rate entertainment. They're smart, they're talented, and they can turn their hand to just about anything you can throw at them. Our favourite funnymen are back and up for any challenge in the fifth series of Rob & Romesh Vs. Then, the season may be over but the footy fun continues on Sky as top pundit Gary Neville takes his banter around the country in Gary Neville's The Overlap on Tour. Sky Atlantic brings us an all new drama from the twisted mind of The Weeknd in the music-biz based The Idol, while three girls from the city continue the travails of their fifties in the second season of And Just Like That... on Sky Comedy. For sports fans, it's time to bring the tiny urn home as England host Australia in The Ashes 2023, and we head to California for the third golfing major of the year, as England's Matt Fitzpatrick defends his championship at the US Open.

Rob and Rom Vs – Series 5

Rob Beckett and Romesh Ranganathan are back and gearing themselves up to face four more hilarious challenges in their fifth series. We've seen them do drag, take to the West End stage, dance on ice, and even score freekicks with the England World Cup team. They're not holding back with the challenges this year as Rob and Rom will be jetting off to Sin City, learning the tricks and trades from the legendary Penn & Teller for Rob & Romesh Vs Magic. They will also be pulling the strings as they join the London Philharmonic Orchestra at their Royal Festival Hall residency in Rob & Romesh Vs Classical Music. And finally, they may both be recent first-time dog owners, but will they be best in show in Rob & Romesh Vs Crufts?

The Idol

After a nervous breakdown derailed Jocelyn's (Lily-Rose Depp) last tour, she's determined to claim her rightful status as the greatest and sexiest pop star in America. Her passions are reignited by Tedros (Abel "The Weeknd" Tesfaye), a nightclub impresario with a sordid past. Will her romantic awakening take her to glorious new heights or the deepest and darkest depths of her soul?

Somebody, Somewhere – Season 2

Starring and executive produced by comedian and singer Bridget Everett, follows Sam (played by Everett), a true Kansan on the surface, but, beneath it all, struggling to fit the hometown mold. Grappling with loss and acceptance, singing is Sam's saving grace and leads her on a journey to discover herself and a community of outsiders who don't fit in but don't give up, showing that finding your people, and finding your voice, is possible. Anywhere. Somewhere.

A large crowd of people is seen from behind, looking towards a stage at night. The stage is illuminated with bright, warm lights, and a large screen displays the words "ISLE OF WIGHT FESTIVAL" in a stylized, colorful font. The crowd is dense, and many people are holding up their phones to capture photos or videos of the stage.

Isle of Wight Festival 2023

Skip the ferry and ditch the tent. Sky Arts brings all the musical highlights from the iconic Isle of Wight festival to your home, with this year's event headlined by britpop legends Pulp, superstar DJs The Chemical Brothers, and the incomparable George Ezra, while the one and only Robbie Williams will be bringing the festival to a close. All this plus additional sets from Courteeners, Sam Ryder, Blondie, The Human League, Manic Street Preachers and more! It's a line-up for the ages and you don't even have to get the wellies out.

Forced Out

Although homosexuality was decriminalised in the UK decades earlier, it remained illegal to be gay in the UK Armed Forces until 2000. Forced Out tells the story of the men and women who were dishonourably discharged from the Army, Navy and RAF because of their sexuality. Thousands faced intrusive interrogations by military police and many were imprisoned, had medals removed, and their service pensions revoked. Released to coincide with the findings of an independent government review, this film charts the historic battle for the ban to be overturned.

David Fuller: Monster in the Morgue

This unforgettable two-part documentary shines a light on the one of the most depraved acts of sexual violence carried out in the UK.

Monster in the Morgue tells the story of two 1987 murder investigations which had remained unsolved for 33 years and the evidence which finally led to the killer – David Fuller being brought to justice. But it's the dark secrets he'd kept hidden – which were uncovered following his arrest – which dominated the headlines and gripped the nation as the true nature of his crimes came to light.

With unprecedented access to the family and friends of murder victims, Wendy Knell and Caroline Pierce, we hear how the decades of mystery surrounding the murders took their toll while the detectives and forensic officers from past to present day give emotional first-hand accounts of the investigation – and the evil it uncovered – which still consumes their every waking hour.

Coming to Sky Cinema

Don't Worry Darling

Alice and Jack are lucky to be living in the idealised community of Victory, the experimental company town housing the men who work for the top-secret Victory Project and their families. The 1950's societal optimism espoused by their CEO, Frank--equal parts corporate visionary and motivational life coach--anchors every aspect of daily life in the tight-knit desert utopia. While the husbands spend every day inside the Victory Project Headquarters, working on the "development of progressive materials," their wives--including Frank's elegant partner, Shelley--get to spend their time enjoying the beauty, luxury and debauchery of their community. Life is perfect, with every resident's needs met by the company. All they ask in return is discretion and unquestioning commitment to the Victory cause. But when cracks in her idyllic life begin to appear, exposing flashes of something much more sinister lurking beneath the attractive façade, Alice can't help questioning exactly what they're doing in Victory, and why. Just how much is Alice willing to lose to expose what's really going on in this paradise?

The Woman King

The Woman King is the remarkable story of the Agojie, the all-female unit of warriors who protected the African Kingdom of Dahomey in the 1800s with skills and a fierceness unlike anything the world has ever seen. Inspired by true events, The Woman King follows the emotionally epic journey of General Nanisca (Oscar®-winner Viola Davis) as she trains the next generation of recruits and readies them for battle against an enemy determined to destroy their way of life. Some things are worth fighting for....

 Skypress@Sky.uk

Bros

The first romantic comedy from a major studio about two gay men maybe, possibly, probably, stumbling towards love. Maybe. They're both very busy. From the ferocious comic mind of Billy Eichner and the hitmaking brilliance of filmmakers Nicholas Stoller and Judd Apatow, comes Bros, a smart, swoony and heartfelt comedy about finding sex, love and romance amidst the madness.

 Skypress@Sky.uk

The Lost King

In this inspiring true story, amateur historian Philippa Langley believes she has made the archeological find of the century: the lost burial site of King Richard III. She takes on Britain's most eminent historians, forcing them to rethink the legacy of one of the most controversial rulers in English history.

The Ashes

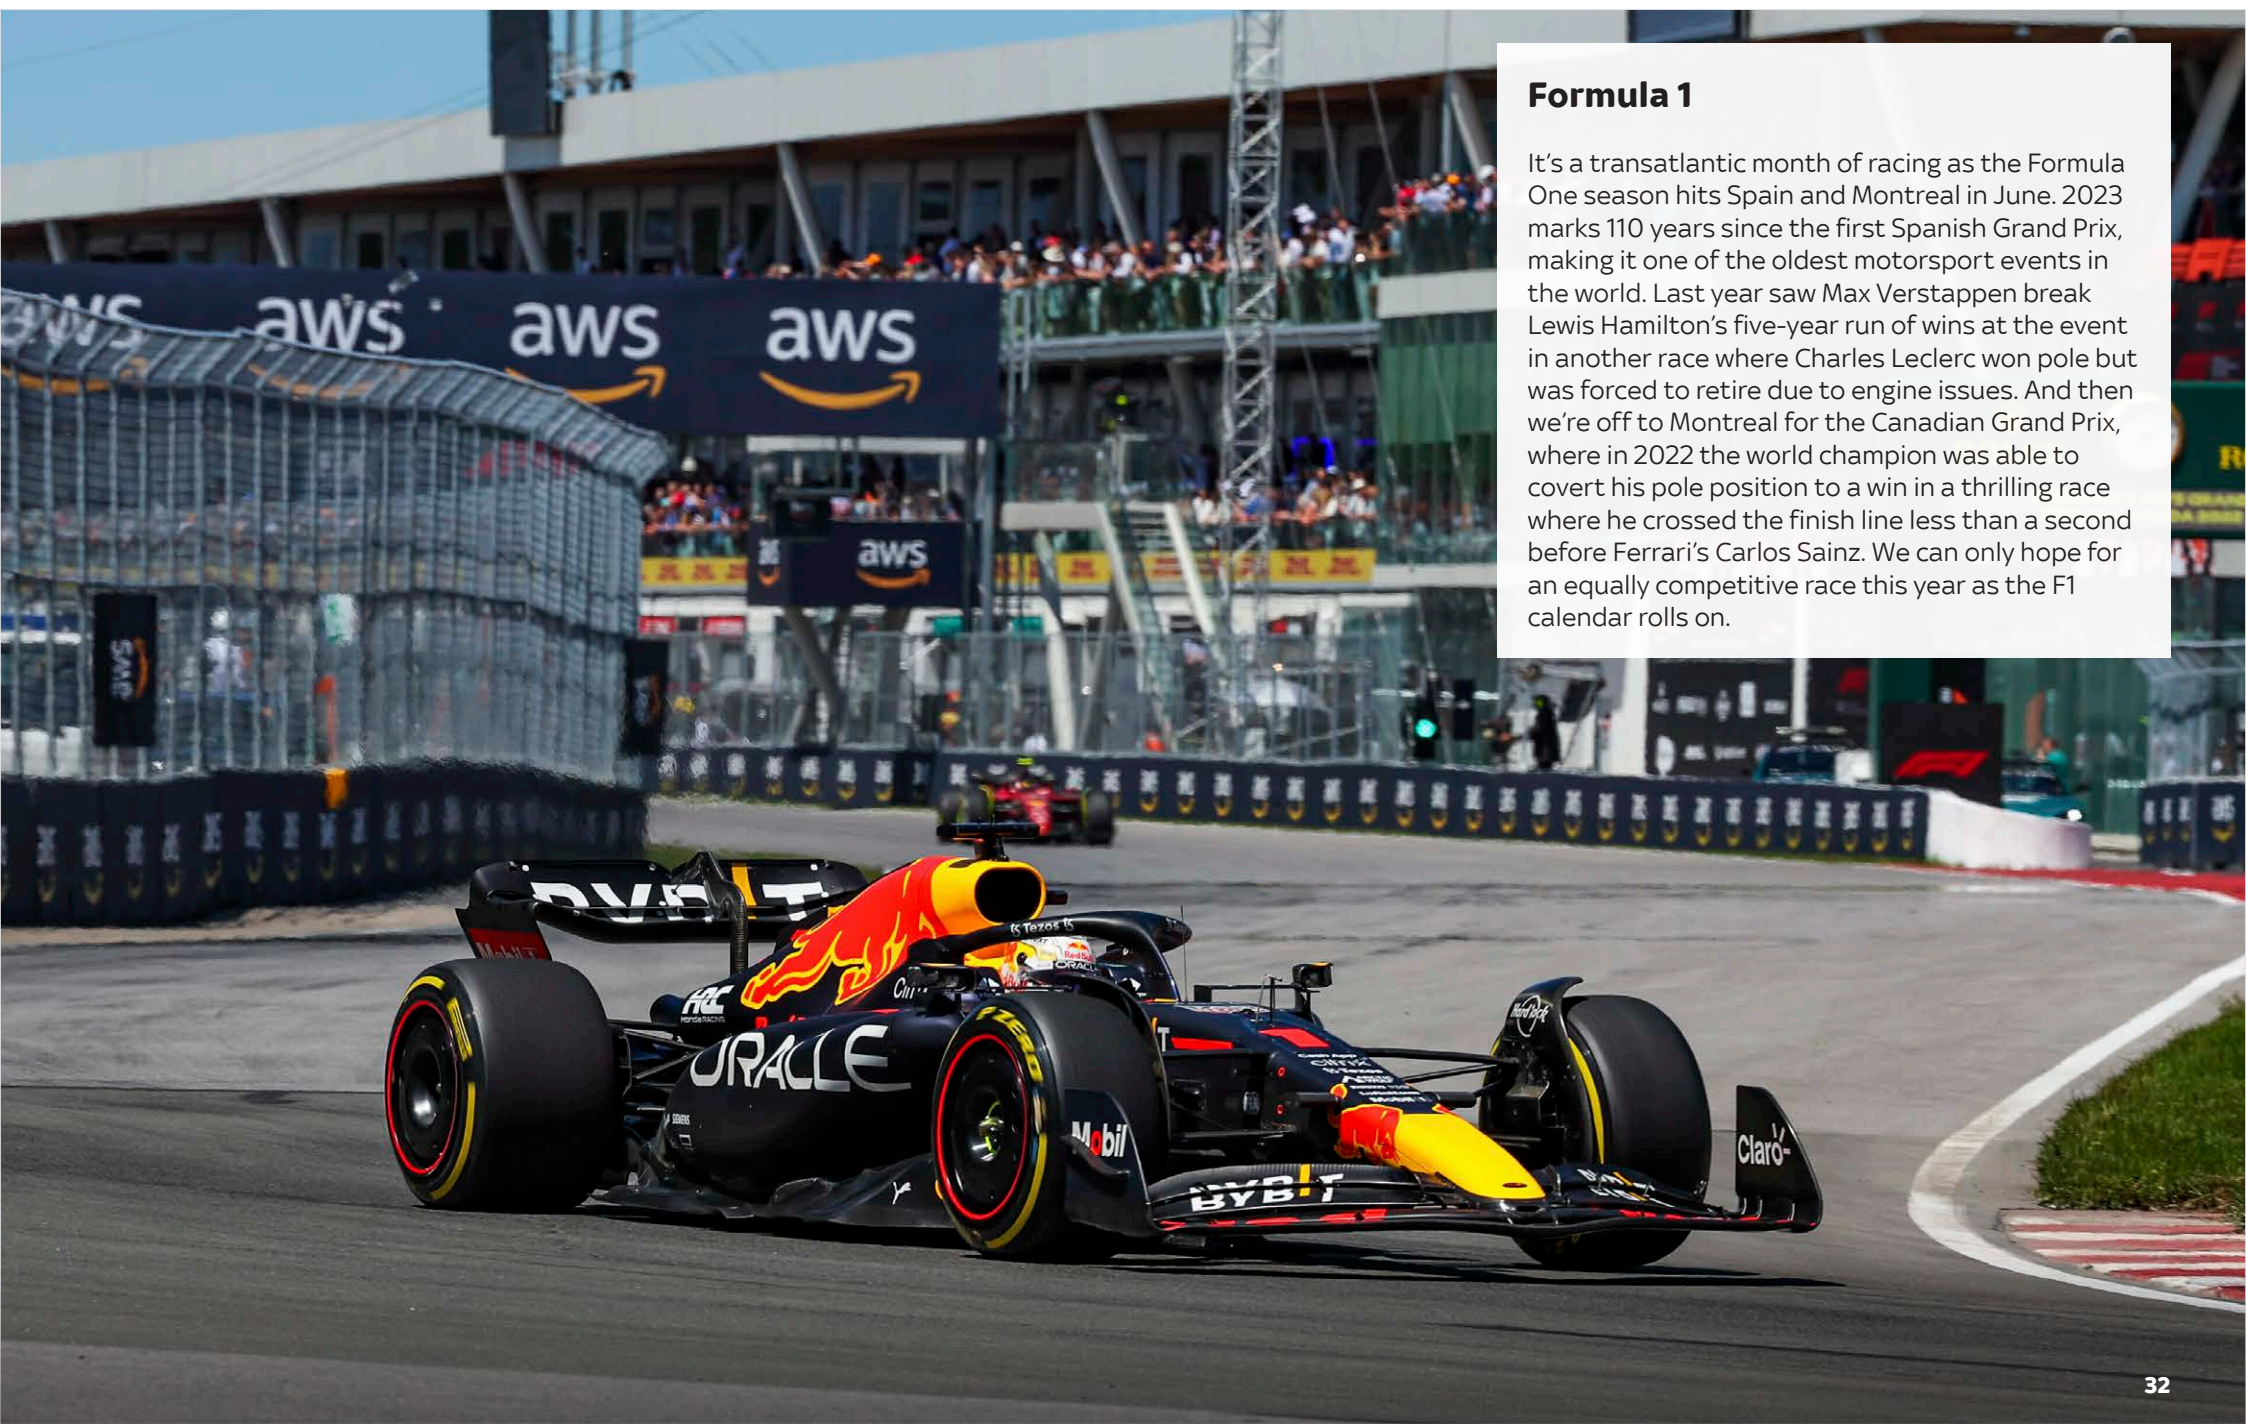

Watch as England's men's and women's sides look to regain The Ashes live on Sky Sports across June and July. With both home sides being cleanly beaten by the hosting Australian teams, the home side will want to get the summer of cricket off to a blinder by reclaiming the iconic urn for the first time since 2015. Sky Sports pundits covering all the action will include Nasser Hussain, Ricky Ponting, Kevin Pietersen, Mel Jones, Isa Guha and Mark Taylor

US Open

We're heading to the Los Angeles Country Club for the third golfing major of the year. Last year's event saw England's Matt Fitzpatrick win his first major title, narrowly defeating Scottie Scheffler and Will Zalatoris in a breathtaking final round. With John Rahm looking on unstoppable form, who will take the trophy home this year?

Formula 1

It's a transatlantic month of racing as the Formula One season hits Spain and Montreal in June. 2023 marks 110 years since the first Spanish Grand Prix, making it one of the oldest motorsport events in the world. Last year saw Max Verstappen break Lewis Hamilton's five-year run of wins at the event in another race where Charles Leclerc won pole but was forced to retire due to engine issues. And then we're off to Montreal for the Canadian Grand Prix, where in 2022 the world champion was able to convert his pole position to a win in a thrilling race where he crossed the finish line less than a second before Ferrari's Carlos Sainz. We can only hope for an equally competitive race this year as the F1 calendar rolls on.

World Cup of Darts

40 nations will step up to the oche as the Eissporthalle in Frankfurt welcomes the 2023 World Cup of Darts. Last year's event saw Australia win the title for the first time, as Damon Heta and Simon Whitlock defeated Wales' Gerwyn Price and Jonny Clayton in the final. This year will see a revamped format which will feature a group stage and Double matches throughout the four day event, as the expanded list of nations will compete for a £450,000 prize fund.
