Changing Ends is co-written by Alan Carr and Simon Carlyll, based on Alan's life in Northampton in the 1980's growing up as the son of a football manager.

Alan will star in the series as himself in present day, whilst taking on the role of young Alan is rising star Oliver Savell (Belfast). Shaun Dooley and Nancy Sullivan will play Alan's parents Graham and Christine along with Taylor Fay as his younger brother Gary.

Gallagher Premiership Rugby
Final: Saracens v Sale Sharks
Saturday, 2.25pm
27th May
ITV1

Hugh Wozencroft is joined by Topsy Ojo, Maggie Alphonsi and Danny Care for the Gallagher Premiership final as Saracens take on Sale Sharks at Twickenham.

The Sharks are now just one game away from lifting the title for only the second time in their history, while Saracens - who are chasing their sixth Premiership title - will be eager to make amends for defeat in the 2022 final against Leicester.

In For A Penny
Saturday, 7.30pm
27th May
ITV1

Stephen Mulhern takes his unique brand of games and quizzes to the streets, challenging unsuspecting members of the public for a chance to win big prizes.

If the players do well, they have a chance to win anything from the price of their petrol to a sizeable cash prize in the ever-popular end game In For A Penny, In For A Grand - in this edition of the show, Stephen searches for contestants in the streets of Cardiff.

Britain's Got Talent
Saturday & Monday-Friday, 8pm
27th & 29th-31st May &
1st & 2nd June
ITV1

Ant and Dec host as the nation's most-loved variety talent show continues with Bruno Tonioli, Simon Cowell, Amanda Holden and Alesha Dixon as the star judges.

Saturday's show sets us up for one of the most exciting parts of Britain's Got Talent - the live semi finals. The acts that wowed the judges beforehand and the Golden Buzzer acts return, but which two acts from each show will go through to the final?

The 1% Club
Saturday, 9.05pm
27th May
ITV1

Comedy legend Lee Mack hosts the quiz show where 100 contestants start with one burning ambition - to make it to the end and try to win up to 100,000 pounds.

This is the show where the questions have nothing to do with remembering facts and are all about logic and common sense - it's the ultimate leveller of a quiz show, and it's also one that gives the whole family a chance to test themselves against the country.

Sitting On A Fortune
Sunday, 7pm
28th May
ITV1

Pulse-quickening quiz hosted by Gary Lineker. Six players compete to be in the right place at the right time to take away a life-changing amount of money

Contestants can win tens of thousands of pounds just by answering a single question. All they have to do is stay in the money chair until the end of the show to try and scoop the jackpot. This time, Jacqui, Garren, Anika, Susanne, Rob and Julian compete.

Midsomer Murders
Sunday, 8pm
28th May
ITV1

Neil Dudgeon stars as DCI John Barnaby in Midsomer Murders: For Death Prepare. Unsurprisingly, considering we are in Midsomer, a murder isn't far away...

The Midsomer Mummers, an amateur operatic society, are rehearsing for their charity concert when the body of an unknown man is found in their theatre - the police investigation quickly becomes a race to discover who is desperate to be centre stage.

Fast and Furious: Hobbs & Shaw
Sunday, 8pm
28th May
ITV2

Dwayne Johnson and Jason Statham reprise their roles as US agent Luke Hobbs and mercenary Deckard Shaw in this spin-off from the Fast and Furious franchise.

When cyber-genetically enhanced anarchist Brixton gains control of an insidious bio-threat that could alter humanity forever, sworn enemies Hobbs and Shaw have to partner up to bring down the only man who might be more villainous than themselves.

Family Guy
Monday, from 9pm
29th May
ITV2

The hit US animated sitcom about a family in a wacky Rhode Island town who try to cope with everyday life as they are thrown from one crazy scenario to another.

It's a busy night in Quahog with five episodes. Brian has a near-death experience, Peter lands a place on the New England Patriots football team, Quagmire tries to marry the Griffins' maid, the guys go on a fishing trip, and Chris runs away from home.
