Crime Series 2

Full series drop on ITVX on Thursday 21st September

ITVX

In the second series, Ray Lennox is ready to return to the fray at Edinburgh Serious Crimes, keen to prove he is fully recovered from his breakdown.

However, he's surprised to find that it's all change: Bob Toal has lost his mojo, Amanda Drummond is newly promoted, and there are two new faces on the team in the form of the devious Tommy Stark and failed actor Norrie Erskine.

When one of Lennox's former colleagues is attacked, Lennox and Drummond quickly realise that all is not as it seems as they become embroiled in a case about vengeance, identity and social justice. The attack is linked to a gruesome attempted murder on a high-ranking establishment figure at a posh hotel which has been hushed up from the police - as Lennox investigates via Edinburgh's saunas, crack dens and poshest hotels, he finds doors slammed in his face as there is an establishment cover-up at play.

It's not until the killer targets one of Lennox's own team that the pieces start to fall into place - tracing the motivation back to an unsavoury incident 30 years ago, Lennox begins to realise that there is more to this case than meets the eye and the killer he has been chasing may not be the driving force behind these murders after all.

Rugby World Cup 2023 Live:
Wales v Portugal
Saturday, 4pm
16th September
ITV1

David Flatman is joined by Sam Warburton, Gareth Thomas, and Philippa Tuttiett as Wales face World Cup rookies Portugal in Nice and look to land a big victory.

Warren Gatland's side will be hoping for a confidence-boosting win before their Pool C showdown with Australia - the teams have only met once before in a qualifier for the 1995 World Cup that Wales won convincingly as they picked up a huge 102-11 victory.

Rugby World Cup 2023 Live:
Ireland v Tonga
Saturday, 7:15pm
16th September
ITV1

Mark Pougatch is joined by Brian O'Driscoll, Rory Best, and Bryan Habana for Ireland's second match at the World Cup as they take on Tonga in Nantes.

With matches against Scotland and South Africa to come, Andy Farrell's Irish side will be eager to claim victory against Tonga, who open their campaign against the 2023 - Six Nations Grand Slam champions. Miles Harrison and Gordon D'Arcy commentate.

Bali 2002
Saturday, 10.45pm
16th September
ITV1

Based on the events of 2002 terrorist attacks on Bali's tourist hotspots, this drama explores how everyday heroes brought order from chaos and hope from despair.

A team of Australian Federal Police is dispatched to Bali to work with Indonesian police, and it becomes clear that the explosions were a coordinated act of terrorism - meanwhile, the injured survivors are evacuated to hospitals all over Australia.
