The National Television
Awards 2025
Wednesday, 8pm

European Qualifier:
England v Andorra
Saturday, 4pm
6th September
ITV1

Mark Pougatch is joined by Roy Keane and Ian Wright as Thomas Tuchel hopes for an improved performance from his England team when they face Andorra at Villa Park.

It's the start of a season which will hopefully culminate with a 2026 FIFA World Cup campaign, but England must first secure qualification and do better than their lethargic encounter with Andorra in June - commentary is from Sam Matterface and Lee Dixon.

Win Win
Saturday, 7:15pm
6th September
ITV1

An interactive quiz show, hosted by Mel Giedroyc and Sue Perkins, where viewers playing at home can win the exact same truly amazing prizes as studio contestants.

The incredible prizes up for grabs include dream holidays, luxury cars and tickets to some of the world's biggest sporting and entertainment events... but the grandest prize awaits at the end of the series where one contestant could win a cool million pounds.

You Bet! On Tour
Saturday, 8.15pm
6th September
ITV1

Stephen Mulhern is back with the game show where ordinary people face extraordinary challenges while being bet on by a celebrity panel - but there's a twist.

Stephen isn't just in one place this time around... instead, he's taking the You Bet! experience across the country to find his plucky challengers. Can a celebrity panel of Rob Beckett, Zoe Ball, and Eddie Kadi correctly place their bets to ensure their success?

One Night
Saturday, 9.20pm
6th September
ITV1

Jodie Whittaker stars in this Australian drama series about a wannabe writer whose overnight success manages to derail her life and those of her two best friends too.

Fractures among the three friends deepen as the book achieves success - while Hat fights to have the book removed from shelves across the country, Simone strives to reveal herself as the author and Tess devises a shrewd revenge plan against the Calleys.

Cooking with the Stars
Sunday, 6.55pm
7th September
ITV1

Emma Willis and Tom Allen host the show where celebrities pair up with top chefs to cook up a storm as they try to outdo their rivals and become the series champion.

It's the semi-final as the remaining stars celebrate food that provides healthy and nutritious benefits and battle for a place in the grand final - the two stars who fail to impress the chefs will end up in the cook-off and will fight it out for the last place there.

Beat the Chasers
Sunday, 8pm
7th September
ITV1

Bradley Walsh hosts the series where challengers go head-to-head with not one, but all of the Chasers from The Chase... so who has what it takes to Beat the Chasers?

Bradley is on hand as more contestants from across the country face all six Chasers - The Sinnerman, The Beast, The Governess, The Menace, The Vixen and The Dark Destroyer are known as the greatest quiz team in the world, so can anyone defeat them?

I Fought the Law
Sunday & Monday, 9pm
7th & 8th September
ITV1

A drama series telling the inspiring story of Ann Ming, a woman who fought for 17 years to repeal the double jeopardy law after her daughter Julie was murdered.

Ann and Charlie try to rebuild their life together as a shock confession sees Ann launch a campaign that is thwarted by an 800-year-old law - in a bid to finally see justice for her daughter Julie, Ann must take on the British legal system if she is to overhaul history.

European Qualifier:
Serbia v England
Tuesday, 7pm
9th September
ITV1

Mark Pougatch presents coverage alongside Roy Keane and Ian Wright as England continue their qualifying campaign for the 2026 FIFA World Cup against Serbia.

Thomas Tuchel's side have won all three games so far and top Group K, but they now face their biggest test away in a Serbian side that they last played in the 2024 European Championship group stage and beat 1-0 courtesy of a precious Jude Bellingham goal.

The National Television Awards 2025
Wednesday, 8pm
10th September
ITV1

Joel Dommett presides over the 30th year of the ceremony as hundreds of stars and thousands of fans gather at The O2 London for what is the biggest night in British TV.

Vying for prizes are all the headline-making shows of the year - including the unifying finale of Gavin & Stacey, the searingly powerful Adolescence, Vera's poignant farewell and the attention-grabbing arrival of Jilly Cooper's Rivals - and perennials Ant & Dec.

I Fought the Law:
The Ann Ming Story
Thursday, 9pm
11th September
ITV1

Sheridan Smith narrates the true story of Julie Hogg's mother Ann Ming's fight to change the UK's 800-year-old double jeopardy law and win justice for her daughter.

Billy Dunlop was twice tried for Julie's murder, but both juries failed to reach a verdict - protected by Britain's 800-year-old double jeopardy law, he could not be tried again until the law was changed following Ann's passionate campaign to have it abolished.

The Only Way Is Essex
Sunday & Monday, 9pm
7th & 8th September
ITV2

A real-life soap opera, focusing on a group of Essex characters, where lots of drama unfolds against the backdrop of nail bars, wine bars, flash cars and designer gear.

There are much bigger things going on beneath the recent chaos in Essex as Courtney goes to see her sister while Saff goes to see Lauren - as Courtney brings Chloe and Saff together for a day out, Ella's invite of Harry to a birthday party backfires spectacularly...

Sam & Billie: Sister Act
Tuesday, 9pm
9th September
ITV2

The reality series that reunites sisters Sam and Billie Faiers as they enter the next chapter of their lives - however, things are as ever going far from smoothly for them...

When Sam and Billie celebrate mum Sue's birthday and she reveals her ongoing struggles with the menopause, it's Sam and Billie who end up getting shocking results from a wellness check - meanwhile, Sam discovers that someone has been stealing...

Vera
Thursday, 8pm
11th September
ITV3

Crime drama series following DCI Vera Stanhope, a detective who tackles every case with unparalleled gusto and professionalism alongside her trusted colleagues.

When the body of missing fisherman Tommy Stonnall is found tangled in the nets of a North Sea trawler, DCI Vera Stanhope and the team must delve into the lives of his family and a close-knit fishing community - could a smuggling racket be the root cause?

Endeavour
Tuesday, 8pm
9th September
ITV3

Prequel series about the early days of a young Endeavour Morse, whose experiences as a detective constable with the Oxford City Police will ultimately shape his future.

A crime wave has taken hold of Oxford - a homeless man is grievously assaulted, a young PC is found dead, and a notable artist reported missing while a debauched group of undergraduates are wreaking havoc and a TV detective show is filming its final series.
