Men's Six Nations:
Ireland v Scotland
Saturday, 1pm
14th March
ITV1

Jill Douglas presents as the final round of the 2026 Men's Six Nations Championship kicks off with Ireland taking on Scotland at the Aviva Stadium in Dublin.

The final round of this year's championship kicks off at the Aviva Stadium as Scotland look to end their run of 11 consecutive defeats against Ireland on Super Saturday, while Ireland will be aiming to emulate their comfortable 32-18 victory over the Scots last year.

Wheel of Fortune
Saturday, 6.20pm
14th March
ITV1

Graham Norton presents a modern take on the game show where contestants battle it out to win cash prizes by spinning a famous wheel and solve a series of puzzles.

Graham Norton invites barrister Daniel, site manager Lorraine and software sales rep Nicole as they tackle tough puzzles and face the iconic Wheel for a chance to win £50,000 - who will avoid the bankrupts and come out on top? Let's get spinning!

Men's Six Nations:
France v England
Saturday, 7.20pm
14th March
ITV1

Mark Pougatch is joined by Jonny Wilkinson, Dan Biggar and Benjamin Kayser as the curtain comes down on the Six Nations with France entertaining England in Paris.

England fans were hoping pre-tournament that this game would be a Grand Slam decider, but painful defeats to Scotland and Ireland have shattered that dream and so any morale-boosting win here will have to suffice, while France could claim the title.

Who Wants to Be a Millionaire?
Sunday, 8pm
15th March
ITV1

Tense game show where contestants compete for a top prize of one million pounds - they must answer 15 questions correctly and have just four lifelines to help them.

There's drama, nail-biting tension, and Jeremy Clarkson on hand to give away one million pounds - find out if anyone has got that perfect combination of strong general knowledge, calm under pressure, and a touch of luck in order to win TV's grandest prize.

Gone
Sunday & Monday, 9pm
15th & 16th March
ITV1

Chilling mystery drama about a headmaster who becomes the prime suspect in his wife's disappearance and plays a game of cat and mouse with the lead detective.

Michael expresses his discontent with the investigation during questioning, and Annie alights on a new suspect with a connection to the school. Then, Annie and her colleagues begin to see things in a new light as fresh information continues to emerge.

The Summit
Tuesday, 9pm
17th March
ITV1

Ben Shephard presents as 14 ordinary Brits climb one of New Zealand's highest peaks to win a share of £200,000 while being menaced by the Mountain's Keepers.

The final four make the last terrifying ascent to The Summit and, as ever, there are obstacles in the way that include a dangerous crevasse crossing. Who will make it to the Summit, and just which of them is going to be going home with a share of the cash prize?

Celebrity Lingo
Wednesday, 7.30pm
18th March
ITV1

This starry version of the hit game show sees famous faces pair up and go head-to-head in the fast-paced wordplay game in a bid to win big money for their charities.

Adil Ray hosts the game of words as Emmerdale icons Lisa Riley and Mark Charnock take on the Reverend Richard Coles and comedian Tim Vine to attempt to win big money for charity - which of the pairs will be able to spell their way to success this time?

The Stolen Girl
Wednesday, 9pm
18th March
ITV1

A thrilling drama series, based on Alex Dahl's hit novel, about a seemingly ordinary decision that turns a mum's life upside down when one of her children is abducted.

With Lucia still missing, the toxic backlash against Elisa triggered by Selma's article has worsened. Meanwhile, Selma dives deeper into her research as she discovers the scandalous truth about Elisa and connects the dots of Lucia's kidnapping.

It'll Be Alright on the Night
Friday, 7.30pm

Tom Allen celebrates more backstage bloopers and blunders - featuring Kylie Minogue, Michael McIntyre, King Charles III, Romesh Ranganathan, Sue Perkins, Roman Kemp and many more. The cock-ups include Mary Berry almost burning down Alan Carr's house!

Hell's Kitchen

Wednesday & Thursday, 9pm

18th & 19th March

ITV2

Gordon Ramsay's culinary boot camp continues in the USA as the terrifying world-renowned head chef slices and dices a fresh group of wannabe cordon bleu cooks.

As the series begins, 50 hungry chefs from all corners of the USA enter the arena, but only 20 of them will survive the first cut to carry their state's flag. From the Signature Dish Challenge to the first dinner service, it's state pride and culinary glory on the line!

Family Guy

Wednesday & Thursday, 10pm

18th & 19th March

ITV2

The return of the long-running American animated sitcom about a dysfunctional family in a wacky Rhode Island town who go from one crazy scenario to another.

Peter stars as Maverick - alongside his family and his friends - in a typically loving parody of the classic 1986 film Top Gun. Then, Peter tries to make Joe laugh when he realises that he has never found him funny, and Lois chaperones a school trip for Chris and Meg.

Midsomer Murders
Monday, 8pm
16th March
ITV3

The popular detective series, based on the novels by Caroline Graham, that follows Inspector Barnaby as he investigates mysteries in the heart of Middle England.

Barnaby and Scott investigate a death in Midsomer Mere, a place where villagers seem to have the ability to predict future events. John Ransom's head was covered in scorch marks. Is his death due to a pub brawl or is he a casualty of some bizarre experiments?

Doc Martin
Friday, 8pm
20th March
ITV3

Comedy-drama series starring Martin Clunes as doctor Martin Ellingham, who is forced to give up being a surgeon and retrain after developing a phobia to blood.

It's business as usual for Martin, even though it is his wedding day, when he opens the surgery to a stream of patients that includes one of the bridesmaids - however, the Doc probably didn't count on having to send the local vicar off in an ambulance...

ITV Racing: Friday Night Live
Friday, 5.15pm
20th March
ITV4

Megan Nicholls presents coverage of the third meeting of the 2026 Friday Night Live series - which features plenty of competitive races - from Wolverhampton.

The series returns to Wolverhampton, with the original date falling foul of the weather. There will be plenty of competitive races this time after the success of Constitution Hill's appearance last time out. Commentary is provided by regular Richard Hoiles.

The Spy Who Loved Me
Wednesday, 9pm
18th March
ITV4

Spy action starring Roger Moore and Barbara Bach. James Bond investigates when a submarine holding nuclear warheads suddenly vanishes while on patrol.

Bond travels to Egypt, where he teams up with KGB agent 'Triple X', Anya Amasova, who is investigating the disappearance of a Soviet submarine. They soon discover the subs were stolen by Karl Stromberg, who plans to start a new world war.
